Community Services Block Grant (CSBG)
CSBG CARES Balance of Funds Discretionary Request for Proposals (RFP)

The State Community Services Office is accepting CSBG CARES Balance of Funds Discretionary proposals to support the community action network through data transfer work specifically designed to support the requirements of the Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) Annual Report and the data generated by programs developed in response to the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic. Applicants must have detailed knowledge and understanding of the CSBG Annual Report, strong working relationships with Utah's community action agencies, and access to the platforms needed to complete this work. Proposals are also invited that address capacity building within the network. Subcontracting of this funding is not permitted.
